ABOUT KAYLA MARIA G

Kayla Maria G, Afro-Latina New York City native, is a professional model, dancer, teacher, and influencer whose goal is to break barriers and normalize disabilities. She is currently a signed model and dancer under Zebedee Talent and CTalent. She has been featured in international campaigns for dance such as Nike, Tommy Hilfiger, Amazon and more. What sets her apart is that she is a proud bionic user. She is comfortable in her own skin and sees the beauty in her limb difference.

She has not only danced in campaigns but has also choreographed for Disney + and has been featured in music videos such as When We Move by Common. Kayla broke barriers by being the first dancer to open up for Pretty Little Thing's SwimWear Show and has been hired as a bionic dancer for Eurovision with Sam Ryder. She loves to create movement through story telling and shares this passion as a dance teacher

Personal

A style that allows you to explore your femininity while feeling confident in your body, mind and soul. Each class starts with an Energy Talk where we discuss the kinds of experiences we should draw from to allow the movement to feel more natural to the body. Classes include learning specific foundations that can be applied to the choreography and filming
